

Trinity Broads mud pumping

Safeguarding our water supply

Protecting the Environment

Who will deliver this work?

Regulator Approvals

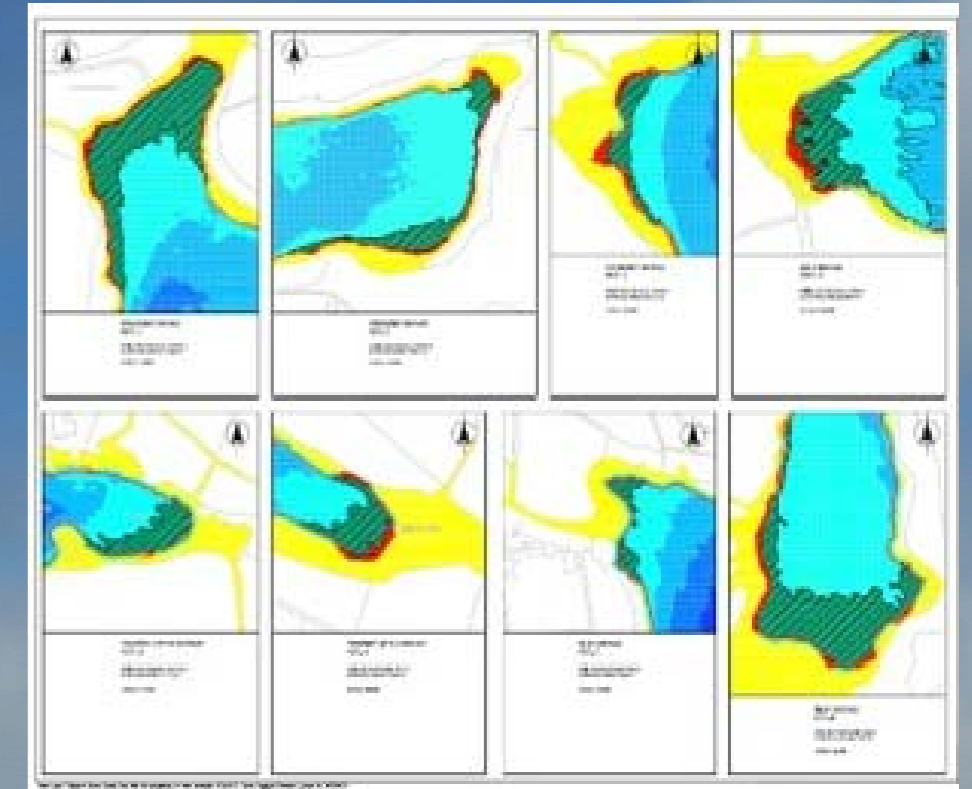

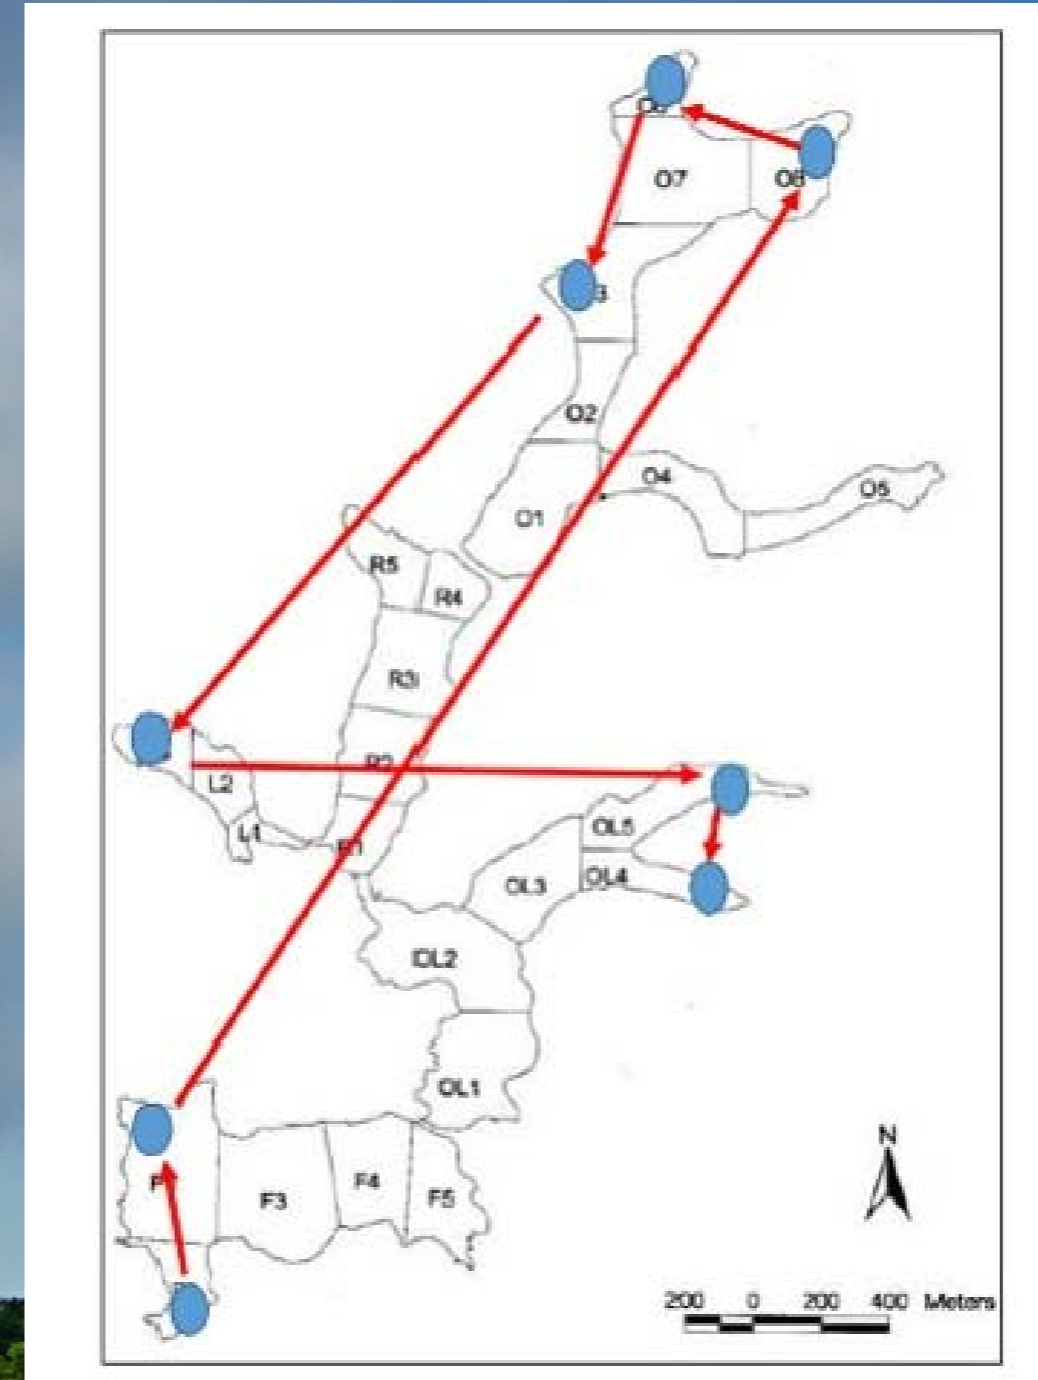

Where will it happen?

Working in cooperation with:

- Land, property & business owners
- Local sailing clubs
- Other recreational users and community groups

When will it happen?

	2016				2017
	November	December	January	February	March	July	August	September
Mobilisation and pre-surveys
Mud pumping
Location 1
Location 2
Location 3
Location 4
Location 5
Location 6
Location 7
Location 8
Demobilisation
Agricultural Spreading

The Trinity Broads mud pumping project will ensure minimum water depths are maintained during dry years, therefore protecting the sensitive ecology, whilst ensuring Essex & Suffolk Water can continue to provide a secure water supply to the Great Yarmouth area and surrounding villages. This project has been developed over many years with the Environment Agency, Natural England and Norfolk Wildlife Trust and has been supported by the Trinity Broads Consultation Group.

How will it be carried out?

